Rationale:
- The Victorian Privacy Laws, the Information Privacy Act 2000 and Health Records Act 2001 provide for the protection of personal and health information. The Privacy Laws do not replace any existing obligations Mordialloc College has under other laws. Essentially this policy will apply when other laws do not regulate the use of personal information. This policy applies to members of school staff and the school council at Mordialloc College.

Aims:
- To ensure that Mordialloc College complies with the above legislation in relation to the collection and disclosure of personal and health information.

Implementation:

Definitions

Personal information means information or opinion that is recorded in any form (whether true or not), about an individual whose identity is apparent, or can reasonably be determined from the information or opinion. For example this includes all paper and electronic records, photographs and video recordings.

Health Information is defined as including information or opinion about a person’s physical, mental or psychological health, or disability, which is also classified as personal information. This includes information or opinion about a person’s health status and medical history, whether recorded or not.

Sensitive Information is defined as information relating to a person’s racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union, or other profession, or trade association membership, sexual preferences, or criminal record that is also classified as personal information about an individual.

In this policy personal information refers to - personal information, health information and sensitive information unless otherwise specified.

Parent in this policy in relation to a child, includes step-parent, an adoptive parent, a foster parent, guardian, or a person who has custody or daily care and control of the child.

Staff in this policy is defined as someone who carries out a duty on behalf of a school, paid or unpaid, or is contracted to, or directly employed by the school or the Department of Education and Training. Information provided to a school through job applications is also considered staff information.
Personal Information is collected and used by Mordialloc College to -
• provide services or to carry out the School statutory functions,
• assist the School and its staff to fulfil its duty of care to students,
• plan, resource, monitor and evaluate School services and functions,
• comply with Department of Employment and Training reporting arrangements,
• comply with statutory and or other legal obligations in respect of staff,
• investigate incidents or defend any legal obligations against the school, its services or its staff, and
• comply with laws that impose specific obligations regarding the handling of personal information.

The purposes for which the school uses personal information of students and parents include –
• keeping parents informed about matters related to their child’s schooling,
• looking after students’ educational, social and health needs,
• celebrating the efforts and achievements of students,
• day to day administration,
• satisfying the School’s legal obligations, and
• allowing the School to discharge its Duty of Care.

The purposes for which the school uses personal information of job applications, staff members and contractors include –
• assessing the suitability for employment,
• administering the individual’s employment or contract,
• for insurance purposes, such as public liability or WorkCover,
• satisfying the School’s legal requirements, and
• investigating incidents or defending legal claims about the School, its services or staff.

The School will use and disclose personal information about a student, parent and staff when:
• it is required for general administrative duties and statutory functions,
• it relates to the purposes for which it was collected, and
• for a purpose that is directly relating to the reason the information was collected and the use would be reasonably expected by the individual and there is no reason to believe they would object to the disclosure.

The School can disclose personal information for another purpose when:
• the person consents, or
• it is necessary to lessen or prevent a serious or imminent threat to life, health or safety, or
• is required by law or for law enforcement purposes.
Where consent for the use and disclosure of personal information is required, the School will seek consent from the appropriate person. In the case of a student’s personal information, the School will seek the consent from the student and/or parent depending on the circumstances and the student’s mental ability and maturity to understand the consequences of the proposed use and disclosure.

Accessing personal information –
- A parent, student or staff member may seek access to their personal information provided by them that is held by the School. Access to other information may be restricted according to the requirements of laws that cover the management of school records. These include the Public Records Act and the Freedom of Information Act.

Updating personal information –
- The School aims to keep the personal information it holds accurate, complete and up to date.
- A person may update their personal information by contacting the Business Manager.

Security –
- School staff and students have use of information communication technologies (ICT) provided by the School. This use is directed by –
  - The Department of Education and Employment’s Acceptable Use Policy for Internet, Email and other electronic communications.
  - The Department of Education and Employment’s IT Security Policy.

Websites –
- The Mordialloc College Web and Web Server makes a record of a visit and logs the following information for statistical purposes -
  - The Internet Protocol (IP) Address of the machine connecting to the Website
  - The top level domain name, actual address of website visited, and time and date of visit
  - The user name

Complaints under Privacy –
- Should the School receive a complaint about personal information privacy, this will be investigated in accordance with the Department of Education and Training’s Privacy Complaints Handling Policy.

Evaluation:
- This policy was originally formed, and will be reviewed in consultation with all members of the wider community as part of the school’s three-year review cycle.

This policy was last ratified by School Council in.... June 2003